

Journal of Disaster Research

Instructions to Authors

1. Objective

This journal focuses on disaster research.

2. Submission Qualifications

None.

3. Manuscript Responsibility

Authors alone are responsible for all statements in manuscripts.

4. Targeted Fields

All fields of disaster, including but not limited to natural, information, lifeline, and transportation disasters; terrorism including biochemical and bacterial, e.g., bacilli; and nuclear disaster. Contributions on disaster prevention planning and measures, disaster (risk) management, disaster psychology, disaster-related medical treatment, sociological aspects of disaster, economic influences, and disaster philosophy are also welcomed. Submission of a paper implies that material in that paper has not been published before and is not being considered for publication elsewhere. Contributions of a political or religious nature are not accepted.

5. Type and Length of Articles

- 5.1. Papers present new findings and original concepts accompanied by complete discussions. The number of pages includes the abstract, keywords, text, and illustrations (tables, figures, and photographs). They shall average 8 printed pages and have not been published to date elsewhere.
- 5.2. Reviews give a balanced assessment of a specific subject, introducing authors' views on recent progress and prospects.
- 5.3. Survey reports describe technical findings that are actually useful in practical application. They shall average 6 printed pages.
- 5.4. Letters contain original and valuable facts or conclusions whose contents are to be published promptly. They shall not exceed 2 printed pages.
- 5.5. Notes discuss new facts, valuable data, or conclusions not concluded as research. They shall not exceed 2 printed pages.
- 5.6. News describes incomplete research and includes new findings or valuable data. Contributions shall not exceed 2 printed pages.
- 5.7. Discussions state opinions on articles published in the Journal of Disaster Research. The Editorial Committee may request original authors' opinions on the discussion in question.
- 5.8. Materials contain valuable reports from the past and facts that may be useful in projected research. Articles previously published elsewhere are acceptable with appropriate attribution.

- 5.9. Tutorials clearly explain the latest research results to nonexperts in the field covered. These do not necessarily include the original work of authors.

6. Language and Units

- 6.1. The language for contributions may be English or Japanese.
- 6.2. SI units are preferable, but CGS is also acceptable.

7. Manuscript Submissions

- 7.1. Electronic submission of PDF files by e-mail is preferred. Hard-copy contributions should be sent in triplicate. All photographs must be original. When contributions are accepted, authors are requested to submit final manuscripts. Details are provided upon notice of acceptance.
- 7.2. Manuscripts should be sent to the Editorial Committee, Journal of Disaster Research, disaster@fujipress.jp.
- 7.3. All submitted papers are reviewed by at least two referees. The received date is the arrival date of a manuscript, and the accepted date is the approval date for publication by the Editorial Committee.

8. Page Charges

A charge of ¥11,000 per printed page will be invoiced to authors or their designated institution. One copy of the journal is sent to the contributor.

9. Reprints

Reprints are purchasable on request. Applications for reprints are made on the order form at final manuscript submission.

10. Copyright

- 10.1. Copyrights of articles published in the Journal of Disaster Research become the sole property of the publisher.
- 10.2. Authors wishing to use articles previously published in the Journal of Disaster Research for any purpose in any form shall obtain approval in writing in advance from Fuji Technology Press Ltd.

11. Rules for Preparing Manuscripts

Rules for preparing manuscripts are given elsewhere.
